Additional Information

The LFE New Member Application is available at: www.lferc.com/downloads/LFEApplicationandReleasenew.pdf

The LFE Membership term expires on December 31 of each calendar year. Adult New Member fees include $150 initiation plus pro-rated dues for the first year (see page two for sliding new member schedule). Renewal dues are $125 per calendar year. If you are 90 or over, LFE membership is free, please let us know.

Youth membership, under age 19, is $30. Youth members are not charged an initiation fee. Annual dues are $30 each calendar year until reaching the age of 19.

PayPal is available from our website LFERC.com. Use the drop-down list to select the payment amount then click on "Buy Now". PayPal accepts credit cards. Include a copy of your PayPal payment with your New Member Application.

AMA "Adult" or "Youth" membership is required before applying to join LFE. AMA "Park Pilot" membership is not acceptable. Your AMA expiration date must be December 31, 2026, or later. You can join AMA online at: <https://www.modelaircraft.org/>

The FAA has restrictions on RC flight operations. Information is available at <https://faadronezone-access.faa.gov/#/>

Review the LFE Member Handbook before applying for membership. It can be found within the "Club Info" tab on the LFE website. <http://www.lferc.com/clubinfo.php> New members must get a field orientation and flight check from an LFE Check Pilot.

Training is available for "Student" pilots and is free of charge. Contact Tom Bennett our Chief Flight Instructor, at jtbenett@sbcglobal.net or by phone at (925) 315-2699. Tom can advise you on appropriate RC equipment and coordinate a training schedule. New pilots will learn how to safely operate and fly RC aircraft. Your instructor will give an "OK to solo" endorsement after completion of your training.
